

School Awards 2020-2021

Grammar School Music Awards

Grammar School Music Award

The Grammar School Music Award is given to one student per grade from first through sixth. These students have a passion for music in their classrooms and in various ensembles and will undoubtedly be leaders in our upper school ensembles in the future.

Congratulations to the 2020-2021 winners!

1st Grade – Noah Hickman

2nd Grade – Lilly Talkington

3rd Grade – Daniel Grisham

4th Grade – Kendrick Aiken

5th Grade – Brinley Stratton

6th Grade – Kaeden Beno

Recorder Kung Fu Award

Our music program begins instruction on the recorder in third grade. The Recorder Kung Fu program is designed to challenge students to pass a series of belts to achieve a mastery of the instrument. This year, we had the very the first grammar school student pass every level. For this momentous achievement, this student was awarded a wooden recorder.

Congratulations to our very first Recorder Kung Fu black belt!

6th Grade – Kaeden Beno

Telemann Recorder Award

The Telemann Recorder Award is given to one student who demonstrates commitment and excellence to the task of learning the recorder in the grammar school.

Congratulations to the 2020-2021 winner!

3rd Grade – Connor Lucenay
